

1878, ch. 292.

364. Every applicant for a license shall be required to make oath before the clerk of the circuit court for Cecil county that he is a bona fide resident of Cecil county, and that he will obey and comply with all the provisions of sections 361, 363 and 364; and every person to whom such license may be granted shall be required to paint the number or name of his sink box on some prominent part thereof, to correspond with the number or name in the said license; and no owner, hirer, borrower or other person shall use or employ any sink box of any description whatever, for the purpose of shooting at wild water-fowl therefrom in the waters described in section 361, without such license to so use and employ said box having first been obtained.

365. Every two years, the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, shall appoint a special policeman for the said rivers and their tributaries in Cecil county, who shall hold his office until his successor qualifies, or during the pleasure of the governor; and said special policeman shall, within sixty days after his appointment, file with the clerk of the circuit court for Cecil county, a bond with sureties to be approved by the clerk, in the penalty of one thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties; and it shall be the duty of the special policeman to enforce the provisions of sections 361 to 370, inclusive; and he shall have power to arrest without warrant, upon his own view, or upon credible information, all persons violating any of said sections, and to carry such persons before any justice of the peace, to be dealt with according to said provisions; and upon information being given under oath to any justice of the peace for Cecil county, of any violation of any of said provisions, the justice shall issue his warrant for the arrest of the offender, and the seizure of all sink boxes and vessels, decoys, tackle or other furniture belonging thereto, which warrant shall be directed to the special policeman, or to the sheriff or any constable of Cecil county, or to one or more of those holding licenses, and constituted as officers to carry out the said provisions; and any one resisting an officer or other person authorized to make arrests or seizures, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor,
